PREVENTING WAR. SHAPING PEACE.

The Council Experience

Corporate Council members are a distinguished circle of Crisis Group supporters drawn from senior executives and private sector firms. Contributions to Crisis Group made by Council members support our work in conflict zones and vulnerable states worldwide.

Members find our independent analysis directly relevant to their business interests, helping them to check internal assumptions, gain valuable insights, and develop strategies to mitigate against risk.

- New opportunities for briefings examining the intersect between conflict and economics, climate change, technology and gender.
- Special access to our Trustees and peer Council members, including former heads of state, diplomats, and corporate executives.
- Join a wide range of member-only events, with a strong digital platform bringing together a global community alongside in-person events.
- Corporate Council membership can support members' Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) policies and contribute to positive practise.

Your gift supports our efforts to prevent, manage and resolve conflicts around the world. Non US based donors who wish to make a tax deductible donation to Crisis Group should contact DevOps@crisisgroup.org

Our Work

Over the past decade, the number of wars grew by nearly 50%. Almost 1% of the world's population fled their homes. The economic impact of war exceeded $14 trillion in 2018 alone.

At Crisis Group, we believe that deadly conflict is preventable.

We gather crucial information in the field and deliver impartial insight to wherever decisions are made – whether an insurgent's home, a refugee camp, or a prime minister's office. We open channels of communication and find innovative solutions to de-escalation and prevention of conflict.

Since our founding more than 25 years ago, our independence and impartiality remain our most cherished qualities, high level access and field based research our most valued assets, preserving life our ultimate achievement.

With your help, we can prevent deadly conflict.
